

Michael Grinfeld (University of Strathclyde, Glasgow)

Travelling waves in the Rosenau–KdV equation

Abstract

In the general context of singularly perturbed conservation laws, we consider the existence of monotone travelling waves in the Rosenau-KdV equation, which exhibits phenomena that cannot be seen in the well-known Burgers-KdV equation. Many problems are still open.

This is joint work with N. Bedjaoui, G. Maypaokha (UPJV) and J. A. C. Weideman (Stellenbosch).